

The Massachusetts Statewide Wood Energy Team invites you to:

Modern Wood Heating in Worcester County

March 30th

10:30- 3:30

10:30-11:00 Tour of Briggs Elementary School pellet boiler

11:00-11:30 Travel to Mt. Wachusett Community College

11:30-12:00 Tour of Mt. Wachusett Community College wood chip system

12:00-1:30 Presentation by a DOE CHP technical assistance program representative on the benefits and economics of combined heat and power (CHP).

Presentation by Marc Caluwe on wood chips for thermal and CHP applications.

Lunch provided. Meet in the North Café at Mount Wachusett Community College

1:30-2:00 Travel to Narragansett Regional High School

2:00-2:30 Tour of Narragansett Regional High School wood chip system

2:30-3:00 Travel to Harvard Forest

3:00-3:30 Tour of Harvard Forest cordwood boiler.

Space is limited to 30 attendees, so priority will be given to municipal and school officials.

Please email Bryn Gingrich at bgingrich@massforestalliance.net or call 781-249-1130 to register. There is no cost to attend, and lunch will be provided during the presentations. Registration is open through March 15th.

Transportation to event locations will not be provided but carpooling is encouraged. Detailed directions and parking instructions for each location will be provided upon registration.

www.massforestalliance.net/modern-wood-heat

MA Statewide Wood Energy Team

@modernwoodheat

This event is sponsored by the Massachusetts Statewide Wood Energy Team (SWET). The SWET identifies and assists in the development of renewable wood heating technologies and provides educational experiences for prospective wood energy users. The US Forest Service created and supports the SWET initiative.

The SWET is coordinated by the Massachusetts Forest Alliance, a trade association that advocates for a strong, sustainable forest